8.3 Subject to Conditions 2.2, 2.4 and 3.3.3, the Contract contains the entire agreement between the parties in respect to its subject matter and supersedes all previous agreements and understandings between the parties in respect to its subject matter and may not be modified except by an instrument in writing signed by the duly authorised representatives of the parties and each party agrees that it enters into the Contract without relying on any representation, warranty or other provision except as expressly provided or incorporated in the Contract. Nothing in this Condition shall limit or exclude any liability for fraud.

8.4 The Contract and the Conditions and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with them is subject to the law of England and Wales and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

8.5 A party, provided that it has complied with the provisions of Condition 8.7, shall not be in breach of the Contract, nor liable for any failure or delay in performance of any obligations under the Contract (and, subject to Condition 8.8, the time for performance of the obligations shall be extended accordingly) arising from a Force Majeure Event.

8.6 The corresponding obligations of the other party will be suspended to the same extent as those of the party first affected by the Force Majeure Event.

8.7 Any party that is subject to a Force Majeure Event ("Impacted Party") shall not be in breach of the Contract provided that:-

8.7.1 it promptly, and in any event within 24 hours of the Impacted Party becoming aware of the Force Majeure Event, notifies the other party ("Notified Party") in writing of the nature and extent of the Force Majeure Event causing its failure or delay in performance; and

8.8 The Notified Party may at anytime within 14 days of becoming aware of the Force Majeure Event, unless both parties can agree in writing a mutually agreeable alternative within that time period, immediately terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the Impacted Party, such notice to be effective on dispatch by the Notified Party. On dispatch of such notice, the Contract will immediately terminate. Such termination shall be without prejudice to Conditions 6, 8.13 and the rights of the parties in respect of any breach of the Contract occurring prior to such termination, unless provided that:-

8.10 Failure or delay by MLM in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision of the Contract will not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the Contract, and any waiver by MLM of any breach of, or any default under, any provision of the Contract by Supplier will not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default and will in no way affect the other terms of the Contract.

8.11 The parties do not intend that any term of the Contract shall be enforceable by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 by any person that is not a party to it.

8.12 Any notice under or in connection with the Contract shall be in writing and shall be transmitted by fax, served by first class post or by hand on the party or sent by recorded delivery at or to the address of the party set out in the Contract or at or to such other address as may be subsequently notified by one party to the other. A notice delivered by hand is deemed to have been received when delivered (or if delivery is not in business hours, 9.00 am on the first business day following delivery). A correctly addressed notice sent by pre-paid first class post or recorded delivery post shall be deemed to have been received at the time at which it would have been delivered in the normal course of post. A notice sent by fax to the fax number of the relevant party shall be deemed to have been received at the time of transmission.

8.13 Each party shall hold as confidential and shall not disclose to any third party (except permitted officers, agents or employees accepting a like obligation of secrecy, and then only to the extent necessary for the performance of the obligations of that party hereunder) all information and details given by the other party in connection with the Contract, or which become known to the other party through its performance of the Contract (including but not limited to all Documents, In-put Materials, technical or commercial know-how, specifications, inventions, IPR, processes or initiatives of the other party). Such information and materials (excluding Deliverables) shall upon termination of the Contract for any reason, be returned to the other party. This Condition excludes any information and materials, which the other party is required to disclose by any court of competent jurisdiction.

8.14 In the event of insolvency (which for the purpose of this Condition 8.14 includes any of the events under Conditions 6.1.3 to 6.1.13) of a party to this Contract, the other party shall be entitled to deduct from any monies due to or become due to the insolvent party any sums due from the insolvent party.

8.15 Supplier assigns to MLM, with full title guarantee and free from all third party rights, the IPR and all other rights in the products of the Services (including Deliverables).

8.16 Supplier shall, promptly at MLM's request, do (or procure to be done) all such further acts and things and the execution of all such other documents as MLM may from time to time require for the purpose of securing for MLM the full benefit of the Contract, including all right, title and interests in and to the IPR and all other rights assigned to MLM in accordance with Condition 8.15.
